“ Wilma, I was so sorry to hear about your mama. It is so hard to lose the ones we love so much and even harder when we have been with them everyday and shared so much. Yes, there is no more pain for her, but I know your heart is breaking. May God Bless and comfort you during this time as well as the days ahead when suddenly you are at a loss because your routine of going to see her has been broken. It's not easy, but hang on to your memories and know how much your mother loved you. Most of all remember that there will come a day when we will be together again. If I can help or you need someone to listen, please know that I am here. God's Blessings, Laura

“ To my Momma,
My heart is broken into pieces, the can never be mended. BUT, you were a loving wife, mom and maw maw. You were my best friend, always there, we might not have always agreed but we were together to the end. I have a large basket of memories to help me through the days ahead. You will be greatly missed MORE than words can say. I only hope that you knew and know today JUST HOW MUCH YOUR DAUGHTER AND LITTLE GIRL LOVED YOU. If I had it to do over, I would fight harder, and yell louder just for you. You taught me to stand up for what I believed in and that is what I tried to do. You taught me right from wrong and IF I didn't do it , THAT was my fault. Until I see you again this letter will have to do in saying I LOVE YOU TO HEAVEN AND BACK. LOVE YOUR LITTLE GIRL, Wilma
