

Mrs. Agnes Maxine Carter

September 24, 1934 - December 22, 2013

Mrs. Agnes Maxine Carter, age 79 of Calhoun, GA passed away Sunday, December 22, 2013 at Hamilton Medical Center following a period of declining health. She was born in Blue Ridge, GA on September 24, 1934, daughter of the late Mack and Ethel Pack Tankersley. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her first husband, Clarence William Coleman; a son, Wayne Lee Coleman in 2006; and a great-grandchild, Logan Watson.

Agnes never met a stranger. She loved her family and her pets, and enjoyed attending gospel music concerts. She was well-known as the best biscuit maker at Hardee's in downtown Calhoun. She was of the Baptist faith.

Survivors include three sons, Allen Bruce Coleman and his fiancée Jessica Bramblett of Calhoun, Roger Coleman and Joyce Ellis of Shannon, and David Coleman of Lyons, GA; two daughters, Kathy Blackmon and her husband Gary of Summerville, and Linda White of Chatsworth; a brother and sister-in-law, Walter and Meredith Tankersley of Fanner, TN; and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services to celebrate the life of Mrs. Agnes Maxine Carter will be held Tuesday, December 24th at 11:00 AM from the chapel of Max Brannon and Sons Funeral Home, with Rev. David Thompson officiating. Interment will follow in Mobile Cemetery in Fannin County. Active pallbearers will include Justin Coleman, Allen Coleman, Jason Coleman, T.J. Lynn, Brian Lynn, and A.J. Greene.

The family will receive friends at Max Brannon and Sons Funeral Home Monday from 5:00 PM until 9:00 PM.

“ Allen, it's been a pleasure to know your precious mom. I was always happy when I saw her at one of the singings because she was always so sweet and friendly. Every time I talked to her she made me smile. I'll always remember that about her. She will be greatly missed. My heart goes out to you all and you're all in my prayers.
