“ I have too many fond memories of Alvin when I was young to list here but there is one that has always stuck in my mind and taught me a valuable lesson that I still adhere to even today. Alvin and Betty and Jimmy and I were all in the cab of Alvin's truck (if anyone had pooted we would have all suffocated) going to Talking Rock Creek I believe and we came to a highway that we had to stop and then cross. We had a stop sign but the traffic on the highway did not. Alvin could not see to his right so I was the "lookout". There was a motorcycle coming and Alvin did not see it - as he eased out I was yelling " NO ALVIN NO" over and over but he thought I was saying "GO ALVIN GO". The driver put his bike on the ground and slid into the truck which by then Alvin had realized what was happening and had stopped. Thank goodness the two people on the bike were not hurt. To this day I never say no or go when directing a driver of a vehicle that I am riding in. We all nearly peed our pants that day but later what happened that day was always a chance to needle me and get a big laugh out of anybody that we were telling the tale to.

Jimmy my Heart goes out to you!

Alvin you were a GOOD MAN!!! RIP
