“ Dear Family, I am so sorry for your grief, but we must take pleasure in knowing that Boyd is at peace and is with the Lord this very minute and because I am late signing your guest book, he is with his beloved Thelma too, and now my wonderful parents. Let us know if we can help you all any time now or in the future. May the candle burn as a reminder of what a great man Boyd was.
With Love, Billy & Brenda Guy

“ Uncle Boyd, You are one of the sweetest, kindest, funniest and most gentle people I have ever known. Phenie sure did raise some good kids.
I already miss you terribly, but I rejoice in knowing that you are in heaven, with your mama and papa and your sisters and with my daddy. Please give them all a big hug from me.
I'll see you again someday.
I love you, Adie
Ray and Bibble, you are Angels. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ We all will miss you (great) Uncle Boyd. You and Aunt Thelma were special folks but heaven has just gained another warrior home. Thanks for being kind and understanding and for the time you took to listen to each one of us in the family. See you again, Michael.

“ As this great generation is leaving us to join a grand Heavenly reunion, we mourn our loss while rejoicing with them a hard-earned victory. May the memories stay fresh and the love sustain through this time of loss. Boyd was such a treasure, and he and Thelma have had a marriage uncommon in its sweetness and length! My condolences to you, and to Ray and your family.
