“ I will always remember your smiling face and your beautiful laughter. Your light has shone bright and strong. You will forever be alive in my heart. I still have the poem you gave me in church that I placed in my bible and I have read it often. The paper is faded but the words are etched in my heart. Alacia Whitfield ”

“ I know in my heart that Carol is shouting on the streets of Glory, because Carol Loves the Lord. As for the Children , they have to grieve the loss of their Mom & stepdad. I am praying that God comforts them at this time of sadness.
