“ Please accept my sympathy and regret for the death of Charles. I learned of the news from another mutual musician friend, Lee Roy Parnell, who was contacted by one of the sons. Lee Roy called me to inform me, and we both appreciated being contacted. I went to Mineral Wells High School with Charlie and played in the jazz band with him at MW and also at Stephenville at Tarleton University. This is where we met Lee Roy and formed a band together with other friends from college and in Stepehenville. I'm sorry for having lost track and communication with Charlie over the years since then. He was a fine, fine musician and a good friend. We shared years of music together and I know that anyone who knew of Charlie's talents would remember him as a multi-talented man to play guitars and a collection of saxophones - a truly unique talent. I was so sorry to hear of his illness - 57 is far too young to live. I know that he will be missed by your entire family and many friends. From myself and my family - our prayers are with your family during this time. Greg Givens
