“ My Granny was the most amazing woman I have ever known. She would listen without judging and love without conditions. She gave herself so freely to those she loved. This world seems so empty without her but I can just imagine how much happier and fuller heaven is. They finally got their best angel back.

“ While I would have enjoyed meeting Daisy Dean very much, I have been blessed to know one of her 'host' of grandchildren. My prayers are with all who know and love her and hope there is comfort within the scriptures and bond you all have.
"Blessed be . . . the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.
