“ Randy,Larry,Donnia,and family, The lost of your Daddy is a great lost indeed there was not a finer man that I know. He told me once "when we leave this world what do we leave behind" to me, he has left more knowlege of life and well being for mankind, and the grace of God that I remember daily if I can pass this along to others it is only because of his kindness. Therefore he has left more in riches with him love and understanding then anyone I have ever known. I trully will miss him and my God bless you all as you deal with his lost. Michelle
