“ She was the strongest woman I've ever known even in her worst when I'd ask her how she's doing she's look at me and say "I'm doing fairly well". She used to spank my butt when I'd do something wrong but she never failed to let me know how much she loved me..... I'll always love and miss her she was an amazing woman.

“ She could light up a room. She loved to be outside and to fish. She would sing to me when I was sad or hurting. She always told me to keep a song in my heart. She was able to sing to me one last time. I will keep that song in my heart forever. I love you Nana!! I will see you again someday. ”
