“ I was saddened to hear of Mrs. Evie's death. I came to know her about forty years ago. I worked for the City of Adairsville for many years in and around the community she lived. I would sometimes stop in to see her and talk with her. What a wealth of knowledge and experience she held. I will miss her and I know Heaven is a much happier place with her addition. What a Fine and Respected Lady!!! Larry Pratt, Former City Manager (Retired)

“ Ms. Evie, she was a gift for me to have known for some 30 years. What a love for life and people that she came in contact with. No doubt life was not always easy for her--but I failed to ever see her without a smile on her face and living the life she had to the fullest. I asked her one day how she did it, that constant attitude of gratitude she had and the happiness each and every day. To which I received another smile, a few words of wisdom and she left the room. However, she did return and told me her secret... to which I laugh every time I think of that story. I regret that I can't tell her secret, she would get me! I will never forget her words when she walked in our office, "Lord, I just love you girls!" Evie, we love you too, see you again when we all get to Heaven; what a a day of rejoicing that shall be! Rest in Peace Sweet Friend!
