“ My heart goes out to all of you with deepest sympathy in the lossos of Ken and Maurice. My dad was Ottis Poarch whose mother was the sister of "Aunt Battie". I am so saddened to hear of Ken's death and then Maurice's death this morning. May God carry you through this time of grief.
Love to all and my prayers are for you to find peace within.

“ We all had such a good time at Red Bud High together. Ken and I were in a few clubs together, no classes because he was a few years younger than me. Also we went to Antioch together. He was always a great guy, always being as nice as he could to everyone. My prayers are with you all, I know how it is to lose a brother for I lost my little brother in 1988. If there's anything I or my family can do for you just let us know.
