“ We want the family to know we all loved Bro. Hansel and Sis. Syilba. They will be greatly missed here on earth, but we will all be together again when we all get home to be with our wonderful Lord. What a grand and glorious feeling that is going to be.

“ I feel privileged to have known Hansel Dutton, one of the finest Christian men the Church of God can claim. I met him at age 12, when I became best friends with Cindy in 1968 at FHS. He has always been a man that has loved His God, his family, and his church. I will always remember family devotions in their home when everyone gathered for Bible reading and for prayer. I knew then that I wanted to someday marry a Christian and have a Christian home and family like theirs. The Godly heritage that this man has left his children and their children to come, no amount of money could ever replace. He has fought the good fight of faith and has reached his goal: to be with His precious Lord, his loving wife, and in the future to come, all of his children and as many others as will join him there, singing praises around the throne of God, forever. Oh, and I might add: in his brand new body because he is truly healed eternally!!! If we stay true, we will meet again.

Thank you, Dutton Family, for allowing me to share a small part of your lives. You are forever in my thoughts and prayers. I Love You.

“ Sammy, Cindy, Patsy, Pam, and Troy
I so regret I will not be able to attend your Fathers service. I am recovering from a recent surgery and do not need to be in a car for that distance.
Hansel and Cyble sowed so much into my life as a young adult. I do realize that was their ministry and I was not the only one, however, they made me feel very special.
I love each of you and know we will rejoice as we meet them in Heaven. Mother, Donna, Cyble and now your Dad are all in the Light of Jesus. What a grand place Heaven must be.
I love all of you give me a call when possible 423-605-7160.
