“ I was one of Mrs. Perry's nurses at The Specialty Hospital. I was her nurse the day we had prayer and sent her to Piedmont Hospital for the Defibrillator to be removed, I was there when she came back to Rome and I met her at her home the day she went home from Specialty. I loved her and I am so sorry she is gone, but I know she is in a wonderful place and is now smiling down on all of us. She touched many lives at The Specialty Hospital and I hope we made her days there comfortable and I hope she knew we loved her. We shared the love of animals and as she left the Hospital, she was reading my book called "Marley and Me". My best to you all, Pamela Green, RN
