“ I was so saddened to learn of the loss of your dear baby son. In your grief, I urge you not to blame God, for He never makes mistakes. Although God may or may not reveal why He took Jesse back home to Him, I do know that if you remain true to Him and never depart from your Christian beliefs, you will be reunited with Jesse again, one day. Jesus once said that without Him we can do NOTHING. It's a powerful reminder to trust in Him, wait on Him {be patient} and let him heal your hurts and guide you. Today I came across a Mothers' Day card you made me, way back when. You wrote the following; "If I could reach up and grab a star 4 every time you made me smile, I would have an entire evening's sky in the palm of my hand". Well Crystal, I now dedicate that beautiful sentiment to you. When I think of you, I smile. Whenever you need to, go to that precious place where only God can reach you, and let Him give you a BIG HUG and A WHOLE BUNCH OF PEACE, because He loves you SO MUCH. You'll never regret it. You're in my thoughts and prayers. Love always, Marilyn xo
