“Paw-Paw I miss you so much!! Know your not suffering anymore. You were the toughest man I knew. I remember you working on your truck right after you had left the hospital. I love you with all my heart. I wish you could have got to hold your great grand child but she is going to know everything about you. Im going to tell her all the great things about you. I know you would probably spoil her like you did me. Love always, Glenda

“I only knew you for a few years. A lot of stories were shared. You were a real Calhoun legend back in the day! Sorry this time has come but, we know you are in a place now not to suffer from weakening health. I want to thank you for your daughter's hand. She will be taken care and thats a promise to you. R.I.P, Paw.
