“ Linda, I just wanted to let you know that I was saddened to hear about Kenzil. Sandy and I were just talking on Friday and she mentioned that he was not doing well. I had every intention on trying to go see him this week. One thing is for sure, he would so much rather be with Jesus than me come to visit. I did not hear the news until a few minutes ago.(Monday 1:30) I would have come to the funeral home had I known sooner. Please know my prayer are with you and your family and even though we don't always understand God's ways and timing one thing we do know is that it is perfect! Read Psalm 116:15 and rejoice with Jesus. Love in Christ, Jane

“ Dearest Linda and Family,

Words cannot express our heartfelt sympathy to you all. We are so saddened by Ken's Homegoing, but we can be comforted in knowing Ken is with the Lord right now and is well and in absolutely no more pain, neither does he feel any more sorrow, because the Bible Tells Us So.

We have had some wonderful times together. We will cherish and relive those memories and hold them close to our hearts.

Ken once gave me a token which had on it the scripture verses from Romans 8: 38, 39, which reads: For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Jesus Christ our Lord. (KJV) Isn't that comforting to know and to realize that Ken stepped right from this life into the arms of Jesus Christ.

Our prayer is that God will be ever close to you right now and that He will comfort you and give you and the family a sweet settling peace as we know only God can do.

We are here for you and your family.

With Love and Prayers, Billy and Brenda Guy
