“ We are so very blessed to have known you these last fourteen years. A great friend and neighbor, a great father and grandfather, always there whenever you were needed without waiting to be asked. Never asking anything in return. What a wonderful legacy, to leave such fond memories of a man devoted to God and his fellow man. You have served Him mightily and I know the Father said, "Welcome home my child, well done." Thank you for loving us and we love you dearly. You will be forever missed. Until we meet again...
