“ Nana will be greatly missed by all of us. Emily and Scottie,you both were so faithful to her, as was Larry & Jerry. You provided her with so much love and affection that we rarely see. You were faithful in your love & devotion,provided her with everything you thought she MIGHT need, especially your support and comfort and were always there to hold her hand when she needed it most. You are very special people, as was she a special lady. You will never have any regrets,you went above and beyond your duties,and Nana always spoke so highly of her "GIRLS". She loved you so much,and bragged about how her girls always took care of her. It comforted her just to see you walk in the door everyday.Treasure the memories, she is at rest now. I will always admire you both for the tender,loving care you had for her.Also the kindness you gave our staff. My heartfelt sympathy and love to you both and to your families. Kay Mathis
