“ Dear Aunt Mary, Greg, Sherry & Family, I offer my belated condolences, having just been able to locate information on Robert's passing. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. As kids I have many fond memories of Robert (when we lived in the same apt. building in Chicago over on Byron & Damen Ave.) I simply wish we had the opportunity to keep in touch to share lifes memories and stories throughout our adult years. Please take comfort in your memories of Robert and know that you are all in my prayers. May God grant you peace in your bereavement. Although we're distant family I would like to keep in touch so please feel free to write when you can. Respectfully, Terry

“ Robert: I'm typing this for mama as she can't see very well. You were the sweetest boy and I always felt like you and Greg were like my own boys but you grew up and raised your own. You were a fine man and a good father, I know you were. You will be missed by your family and friends forever. I love you.
