“ One of the best memories I have with Ron was while playing golf. Ron always understood that I was "putt challenged". Once, a little puppy ran onto the putting green just as I hit the put and knocked it off it's path about 10 feet from the hole. I begged for another put and Ron was obliging. I proceeded to hit my second attempt but it ended up further from the hole than the original putt. Once again I begged Ron to let me take my first putt. We just laughed and laughed at that for the next 6-7 holes. I honestly felt a closeness with Ron like a brother. I am glad to have known him and Nancy.
