“ Sadly, I did not know him as well as Nancy. I knew their mother and she was a godly woman of good works. I personally would like to thank her, if possible, for her kindness to my aunt who was her neighbor. My aunt spoke highly of Mrs. Rogers for her Christian works in the community.

I am so very sorry for your loss. Roy and I served in the U.S. Navy together, and I was very disheartened when I came across the notice of his passing. He was an excellent sailor and a very good friend. I regrettably lost touch with him after our tour of duty together but I cherished the time we served together. I cannot think of him without smiling. Fair seas and Bravo Zulu, my friend.
