“ I have always loved Frosty Dutton. I think back to my years at Erwin Hill, as a youth/teenager. Frosty and his family was always so supportive and helpful to all of us. I remember going to the men's softball and Basketball games. Frosty was the coach and it was just as exciting to watch him coach as it was to watch the game. He was so full of life and excitement. Frosty was a true man of God and I know he is rejoicing in heaven right now. We will miss you frosty and look forward to joining you someday. Praying for Magarette, Jeff, Joel, Jerry, Todd, Taylor and all of your family. He has run the race well and now he will reap his rewards.
