“ Wayne, the first time I met you was in 1984. You came thru the back door from a long drive and long days work in Marietta. You towered thru that doorway and I was terrified. Little did I know just how gentle you were. That day I grew to love you like my own father. You welcomed me in with open arms. Never did I ever hear a cross word come out of your mouth. You always had a smile on your face when we entered the room. As I became part of your family you did treat me like a daughter and I will always be thankful for that. I remember bringing Anthony home from the hospital and it was like you had a new toy. You had a little work buddy. He would always stand in the doorway watching to see if you were home. He always loved going to the shop with you. And Autumn, you told me when we found out we were expecting again that you wanted a little girl and you wanted her name to be Autumn. She loves you as much as a grand daughter ever could. I want you to know that she wears her name well. 5 years ago I lost my dad and you know what, you were right there. I want to thank you for being the best papa and the best father in-law a girl could ever ask for. Papa, you are already missed and we will always have you in our hearts. I love you, Melynda

“ Hey Cuz. Sorry I didn't make it back down there in time. We've talked about it over the years, it was on my bucket list to come for a visit. So sorry I could'nt say Goodbye. We had some good times though, you ,Laverne and myself during the time I lived down there. Remember the Friday fishing trips when we worked at Junior's bodyshop. Junior would have me make a beer run cuz he didn't want to be seen buying beer. That little store across the street from the shop where we bought our Moon Pies and R.C. COLA. I'm remembering how we'd come back to yours and Lavernes home for lunch and then take a nap. She made the best catfish and hushpuppies. One time, you were napping in your bedroom and I was on the couch when I heard Laverne screaming from outside; help ,help! A snake is chasing me. Well ,I got up from the couch and sure enough, some little snake had taken a liking to her and was following her around the clothesline. I watched for a bit and then you got up and got rid of the snake. Laverne looked at me and said, you were'nt gonna help a bit ,were you Mike.....Then you told her with this grin on your face, He'd of told ya if'n the snake was gaining on ya. I have so many fond memories of you and Laverne ,the give and take we had. You slipping up and using the phrase "damm yankees" and then sayin, oops, sorry Mike. Then I'd have to remind you that I was born a Georgian. I wish that we could have gotten together once more and rehashed these memories together, but I'll fondly remember them and you can take them with you on your Journey to meet our Lord. I do believe he has a sense of humor and would enjoy hearing them. Laverne, Scott, Ginger, Mark, Liz. I am so sorry for your loss. Wayne was one of the most remarkable people I have known. As Meylynda said ,he never had a cross word for anyone and the smile was always there. I don't believe I ever heard a negative word from him (unless he was correcting me when he was teaching the bodywork trade.:0). I share in your sorrow and will grieve with you, but you know Wayne, he'd say. aw shucks ..stop it. Love ya
