“ Dear Mrs Louise, I am Mary Pence's sister,I want to share with you all,the joy you brought to my sister and Barry,Sr., "Lil Barry's"sisters,Lisa and Mine' and the rest of our family. On Feb.4th,the Saturday before Mr. Clarence died,I saw a movie of a teenage boy who died in a car wreck and his family honored his wish to be a donor.His heart was given to a woman with 2 small children just days away from death.The ending of the movie revealed the beautiful woman and the parents of the deceased son meeting for the first time.The father walked over and asked her,"can I touch your chest and feel his heart beating".She nodded yes and as he touched his childs heart,she hugged him and both cried.Needless to say,I was sobbing,because this was just like the story Mary and Barry said they shared with you and Mr. Clarence.I kept thanking God that Mary was at work and didn't see the movie and bring back saddness to her.This MIRACLE OF LIFE for Mr. Clarence given 20 plus years has healed some of the loss we have for Lil Barry.Joy knowing Lil Barry shared his life with you, kept him alive 20 plus years with us.

I believe God intended for me to view this movie and remind me of the suffering others go through. Compassion for each other will bring healing to our World.

May you be comforted in the days ahead,as you adjust to life with Mr.Clarence's memory.Hopefully,one day I will meet.

Sincerely, Carolyn Hughes

“ I'm sorry to hear about the passing of my long-time friend Clarence Hall. We use to work together at Horizon Carpets and I'll see him at times in Walmart and visited him in the Hospital a couple years ago. I didn't know about his death until we recieved the new paper. But knowing his faith, i'm sure we'll see him again one day in heaven. May the Lord's comfort be with his family. Charles and Charlsie Bramlett
